Sports Reports

KS2 Football Match against Gurnard Primary

Monday 30th April 2018

We played a match and in the first couple of minutes we were attacking full out. The next minute or so they took us on the breakaway 1-0. They were in full possession and they scored again 2-0. The next goal was on the break of half time the ball got wiped in. The next thing you know is he handed it in to the goal like when Maradona scored the hand of God in the 1986 world cup semi-final. The second half we came out strong and got one back of our own to make the final score 3-1 to Gurnard!

Inter School's Jumping 2018

While my pony was doing the Hokey Cokey around the jumps and demonstrating her strength to me (like she does every day) I proceed to be unimpressed. She insists on trying to take over her rider, me, and never listens to the whip which she thinks is some sort of toy and tries to eat it - or me. Either way I show her my persistence and kick her but still she doesn't want to meet the other side of the jump. The Inter School's Jumping wasn't a very big success for me and my class as my classmate's horse gets amused by showing - or throwing-it's rider up and off while carrying on like nothing happened. It was a happy horse. My other friend's horse liked to try and be funny by refusing the first jump; multiple times thinking it was clever. It wasn't. So the 18" for our class wasn't great. The winner for the Inter School's Jumping '18" was Arreton.

The '9" led section did a little bit better. Like they actually placed. I wasn't very happy that my sister placed and I didn't but she was led so who cares... Totally not me. Nope. Anyway I'm not under the impression that my pony is bad because of what my parents say which is that she's, just young (pathetic excuse) I know the real reason and that is she can be an angel but mostly she is a Demon but only to me, what a surprise. Our school in the '9" didn't win but did well. I have learned an important lesson from this, horses are evil.

When we did our jumping round we got two rounds. In the first one she wouldn't get over number 5, there were 8 jumps. Don't go thinking that I'm not using determination because you get eliminated after three attempts. In the second one for me she stopped at number four. I heard the elimination buzzer and I was about to go out but I ignored the judges and carried on I kicked her on over them and she got over all of them. Even though I was eliminated the whole place gave me a round of applause. I might have said it a bit dramatically... In the first round of Joe Calder's, he kept getting over the first jump but struggled with number two. His pony found a lot of amusement by dancing around the jumps like a ballerina; but less gracefully. In round two, hopes were high for Joe, he was leaping over the poles like a frog, wait that's a bad comparison. He got all the way to number 6 but unfortunately his stirrup fell out and he had to stop. In this pony's small mind he had it that Joe wanted to stop and for once obeyed Joe's orders, at the wrong time. Jasmine Simpkins was next and she, unfortunately only got over jump one and in the second one didn't even think about jumping at all. That is how the '18" jumping went.

The '9" led group on the other hand. Paige Steel had a very good leader and got clear rounds both times and got into the jump off and came 5th with a yellow rosette. Connie Jeffery went in as well and got clear rounds both times. So 9" for our school did quite well. Next year we are sure to win but unfortunately you won't have me, Joe or Jasmine. Mostly me though!
