Sport

Last week Shalfleet and Yarmouth both took part in the Danone cup qualifiers at Shalfleet where we welcomed St Thomas of Canterbury. First up Shalfleet played St Thomas and won 3-0 with goals from Sonny, Toby and Malachi. Next it was Yarmouth against St Thomas with Yarmouth coming back from a goal down to win 2-1 thanks to goals from Oli and Archie. That meant the federation derby was a winner takes all! Toby scored first for Shalfleet but Archie equalised for Yarmouth meaning Shalfleet made the finals on goal difference.

Yarmouth team Henry, Archie, Ronnie, Louis, Oli, Lucas, Seth
Shalfleet team Sonny, Toby, Zac, Malachi, Oskar, Alfie, Jack

Danone finals

On Wednesday Yarmouth U9 played their first game as team when we hosted Newchurch at Shalfleet. Newchurch arrived with a strong reputation and took the lead with a well worked free kick. The boys kept their heads up and worked really hard, forcing an equaliser with an own goal from a corner. In the second half the work rate continued and we were rewarded when Joey scored a great goal on the half volley. We then soaked up some pressure before Oli made the game safe scoring in the last minute to mean a 3-1 win for Yarmouth.
