Important Information

Film Night

We are pleased to announce that next week on Thursday 14th October we will be holding a fun film night for the children.

The entry for this will be free of charge. The film will start at 3pm & all children will need to be collected at 5pm.

We will have snacks on sale (Crisps / Popcorn / Sweets) & all proceeds will be for the PTFA. If you wish to donate snacks, please bring them into the school office by Tuesday 12th October.

To reduce our plastic waste, we will run a drinks stall where each child can bring their school water bottle to fill with Squash for a small fee. Optional spending money of up to £3.

KS1, will watch Peter Rabbit 2

KS2, will get to vote for 1 of the following films Matilda, Fantastic Mr Fox or Honey I Shrunk the Kids.

Please let the office (office@yarmouthceprimary.co.uk) know, if you plan for your child to attend stating their film choice.

Harvest Festival

We have now sent all of your amazing donations to the foodbank & would like to say a massive "Thank You!".

Sport

Wednesday 6th October

The Under 9 girls played their first game on Wednesday afternoon against Holy Cross. The game was fairly even to start with, Summer making a good save and the Holy Cross keeper just saving from Olivia. However, Holy Cross' star player then started to run the game. She scored 4 goals and set 1 up and despite their best efforts the girls couldn't get any back. Maddie, Summer and Nina all made some great saves during their stints in goal and the girls didn't give up and had a smile on their faces throughout.

Team: Summer, Olivia, Maddie, Nina, Scarlett, Isla-Blubelle, Tilly, Rosie, Sophie, Madeline

IW Story Festival 2022

Friday 25 and Saturday 26 Feb 2022
at Quay Arts, Newport

IW Story Festival Autumn Newsletter for Schools

Do you like to draw? Lots of people do. Do you know who drew this picture of the Gruffalo?

His name is Axel Scheffler and he is coming to the IW Story Festival at Quay Arts next February. Below is a photo of him.

Why not come to the festival, so you can meet him and ask him lots of questions about his drawings? What will you ask?

Why not draw your favourite Axel Scheffler character, and email it to iwstoryfestival@gmail.com so we can feature it in our online gallery? Or write a question to Axel, and we will make sure to ask him?
